DOC DÃO red 2014 QUINTA DO VALE

HISTORY The brand “Casa Américo” was established by the hands of Americo Seabra , father, who had the dream of producing wine is homeland, Vila Nova de Tazém . The project was followed by the hands of his sons who recovered the property of the century XVIII and built a new winery.

“Casa Américo” now has 100 ha of vineyards, with the oldest ranging over 100 years. Composed by the noble grape varieties from the Dão region, the several parcels are planted in granite soil, between 500 and 600m altitude. The sub-region where they are located, Serra da Estrela, is one of the most important terroirs of Dão Region and here are produced wines with freshness and a unique elegance.

VINEYARDS Single vineyard, established in 1937, in the town of Pinhanços, Serra da Estrela. With an altitude of 600m, the vines are planted with the tradicional varieties and the oldest parcels have 40 years old.

VINIFICATION The grapes were fully destemmed and gently crushed to stainless steel tanks. After cold maceration for 24 hours, the fermentation was initiated under controlled temperature of 23°C. During this process, we assembled the wine and the skins with a gentle pumping.

TASTING NOTES Intense ruby color. The bouquet has aromas of red fruits and pine notes. The palate is fruity with a nice balanced acidity and round tannins.
