

RED WINE
GRANDE ESCOLHA 2011
BAIRRADA D.O.C.

HISTORY

The singularity of the Portuguese viticulture come from the perfect harmony of national grapes with grapes of great wine-growing countries of the Old and New World. São Domingos cellar is proud of its 80 years and honors the Bairrada making a Grande Escolha able to surprise the world for its originality, longevity and elegance.

VINEYARDS

Grapes derived from S. Lourenço do Bairro, Vilarinho Bairro and Ventosa do Bairro, created in sandy clay soils, with a planting density between 3500 to 4500 plants per hectare are conducted with Guyot pruning upward. The vineyards are monitored throughout the growing season, from pruning to harvest, ensuring a high quality production of wine and health, ranging between 7 and 10 tonnes per hectare.
